

Other leisure options in Sri Lanka

Surfing in Sri Lanka

Surf safaris in tuk tuks, delicious curries, and fun waves for every ability of surfer — this is surfing Sri Lanka. Sri Lanka is a beautiful country. With friendly people and impressive landscapes, you'll find yourself in good company with stunning scenery wherever you go.

Sri Lanka has two very different surf hubs operating on opposing surf season schedules, so you can score fun waves in Sri Lanka any time of the year.

Golfing in Sri Lanka

Sri Lanka is yet to occupy its rightful place in the world of Golf. It is home to three of the finest 18 hole championship Golf courses in Asia. The four golf courses of international standing are located in Colombo, Kandy, Hambantotte and Nuwara Eliya. And they are The Royal Colombo Golf Club, The Victoria Golf, Shangri La and Nuwara Eliya Golf Club respectively. The scenery in and around the golf courses in Kandy and Nuwara Eliya, both in the Central Highlands, are of great beauty and variety. The golf courses running through the untouched jungle and bush, the flying golf ball always seen in the background rich green canopy. Since Sri Lanka hasn't been known in the perspective of a major golf playing destination, the fairways in these Golf courses most often remain calm. From Colombo these two Golf courses can be reached by car as well as by helicopters and sea-plains.

Safari in Sri Lanka

Sri Lanka's amazing wildlife sanctuaries offer an unprecedented view of raw Mother Nature. The variety of species found in them are one of the largest in the Asian continent. Going on safari in one of these parks, especially Yala, Udawalawe and Minneriya will give you a sneak peek into the untouched lives of the forest dwellers and their habitats. It will be an experience of a lifetime.

The fourteen wild life parks of Sri Lanka is sanctuary to 86 different species of mammals as well as birds and reptiles. Large herds of wild elephants form the center of attraction. Among the predatory animals, the leopard steals the limelight. Among the other predatory animals are sloth bear, jackal and mongooses. Primates such as common Langurs, endemic macaque, purple faced leaf monkey and shaggy bear monkey roam amidst the woods in huge troops.

Ceylon Tea Trails in Sri Lanka: Luxury, Tea, and Colonial Ambiance

Ceylon Tea Trails is probably the most coveted place to stay in Sri Lanka, and a perfect place for history and tea lovers. Nestled among the scenic tea-carpeted hills of the Bogawantalawa region, you'll find five colonial-era tea planter bungalows which have been turned into a private luxury resort. Each of the historical bungalows has its own distinctive character and offers a boutique luxury experience in Sri Lanka's Tea Country. Each of the bungalows offers 4 to 6 unique rooms and a dedicated butler, chef, and house staff. Ceylon Tea Trails was the first Relais & Châteaux property in Sri Lanka and remains one of only two in the country

Cost for the above options: please contact Amita on nhkcricket@gmail.com